

You can run plagiarism check on any academic material by either pasting the information on the interface provided, or by uploading information as a document.

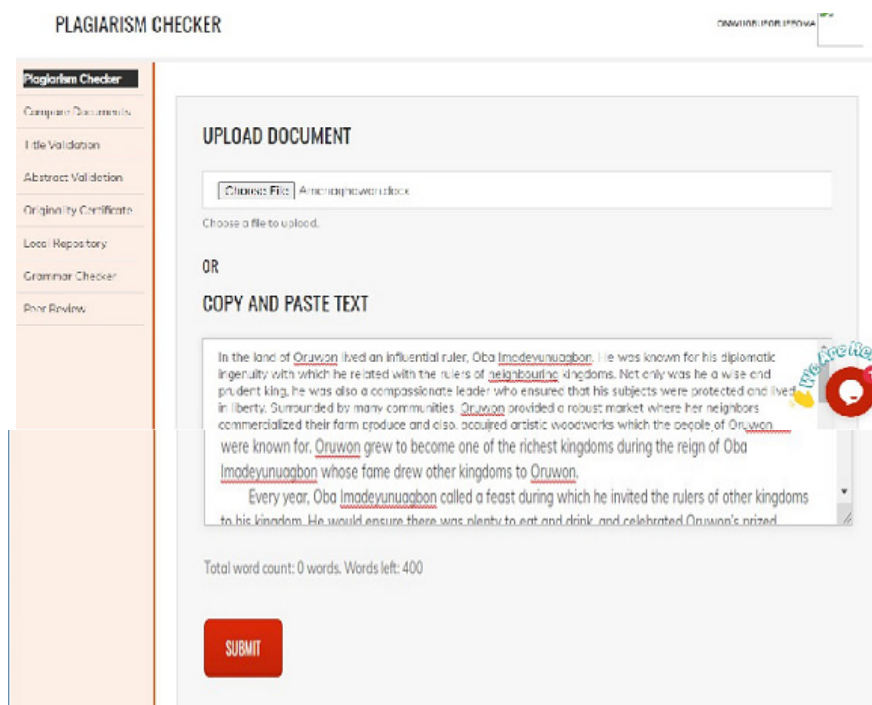

Run Plagiarism Check

1

1.

Select Plagiarism Checker from the task bar on the application landing page. A page is shown:

2.

Click Browse in the Upload Document panel, to select the document from a file location

3.

You may also, copy the material from the source and paste in the provided space in the Copy and Paste panel.

4.

Click Submit to run the check.
The summary report of the check is displayed
as shown:

SIMILAR DOCUMENTS

Document Similarity is: 41.81%

#	Title	Author	Date Published	% Similarity		Details
1	Re-Thinking the $\text{\u0627\u0644\u0627\u0628\u064a\u064a\u064a\u0647}$ Sociological Theory of Ibn Khald\u0627\u0646 in the Modern Period: A Case Study of $\text{\u0641\u0627\u0644\u0627\u0645\u064a\u0631\u0627\u062a}$ Emirate in Ilorin	Adegoke K. A	2021-01-29	 41.81%
2	Unaccusativity and the Adjective/Verb Distinction: Edo Evidence	Baker Mark C., Stewart Osamuyimen Thompson	2021-01-18	 34.17%
3	Conflict as a propelling instrument of change and continuity: The Ilorin example	Author(s): Omoiya S. Y.	2014-08-01	 34.3%
4	Contributions of Ilorin scholars to Arabic and	Author(s): F.O. Jamiu	2014-10-01	 34.11%

reArea